

ART & ACTIVISM IN THE NUCLEAR AGE EXHIBITION

Image: Haren Ingomar, 'They take us away them white fellas,' 2016.
From the collection, 'Life Lifted into the Sky,' by Yalata painters

Where: POP Gallery

cnr Brunswick Street and Ivory Street
Fortitude Valley

When: 6-16 July 2022, 10am-4pm daily

Opening night: Friday 8 July, 6-8pm. All welcome!

Contact: art.nuclear.meanjin@gmail.com

  art.nuclear.meanjin

Exhibits include:

- 7.2 m x 1.8 m full-sized replica, acclaimed Hiroshima Panel 'Fire' on loan, Maruki Gallery for the Hiroshima Panels Japan
- Works from 'Life Lifted into the Sky' by Yalata painters responding to British nuclear tests in Maralinga
- Chernobyl photography by Marilyn Fairskye
- Brisbane-based anti-nuclear activist materials

Supporters include: Australia-Japan Foundation, Brisbane Lord Mayor's Community Fund (through The Gabba Ward office), Union of Australian Women, Just Peace Qld, UNAAQ, Brisbane Combined Unions Choir, Japanese Studies Association of Australia