Cut Military Spending to Fund Social Need- Newcastle Anti-Poverty Rally

Trade Unionists march to Newcastle Anti-Poverty rally - 18th October

Some 300 IPAN leaflets were distributed at the Newcastle Anti-Poverty Rally held on Friday 18th October, in Civic Park. The leaflet drew attention to the heavy government military expenditure of $200 billion in the next 10 years in response to the U.S. demand that its allies spend at least 2% of their GDP on military acquisitions. In addition the leaflet identified the loss of public revenue through 681 corporations paying zero tax in a recent tax year tax and Scott Morrison's so-called tax cuts delivering a bonus of $64 billion to those earning over $200,000 per year. The leaflet called for the government to make the rich pay their taxes and cut military spending with the public revenue gained re-directed to meet urgent social needs.

Lockheed Martin- Arms Dealer, War Profiteer- Give 'em the boot !

IPAN (SA) protest at LM corporate office in Technology Park, Mawson lakes, Adelaide on 24th October

Stephen Darley of IPAN (SA) explains that Lockheed Martin is the biggest military-industrial corporation in the world, which is a good reason in itself to protest outside them (eg the deaths their products cause in Yemen). When we know they are principally here to service the enormous rort of the F-35 joint strike fighter contract, the most over-hyped, overpriced and underperforming contract in military-industrial history ($1 trillion US dollars and rising), which is costing Australia alone A$20 billion and up, we have very good reason to tell them we don't want them and don't need them.

Protect Whistleblowers Rally in ACT

A rally was held in Canberra at Parliament House Lawns on Thursday 24th October with the theme "Protect Whistleblowers and press freedom. Bernard Collaery had a court case also scheduled for that day. He and David McBride spoke and it was well attended by the press.

Peter Greste says in an article in a recent Saturday Paper that a study suggests that 'senior journalist's sources are drying up as they find it increasingly difficult to protect their sources and to guarantee their sources' anonymity'. Professor Clinton Fernandes put the issue succinctly when he says 'national security should be a goal, not an excuse'. These cases are extreme examples of gross injustice and the prosecutions should be dropped immediately. The danger of this trend of secrecy, blame shifting, and suppression of the media to our democracy can't be overstated. For his article

Tell the truth if you dare

By Joan Coxsedge

October 03, 2019 "Information Clearing House" - Once upon a time I felt OK in saying I was an Australian. But that was back in the era when Australia was one of the most egalitarian nations in the world, when there was vigorous debate about important issues and when our basic commodities were in public hands and jobs gave security and even some satisfaction. My grandfather worked all his life as a train driver (steam) and my father followed him into the railways, a solid career move back then, which was why I was born in Ballarat. What a different story today.

US Marines 2019 rotation leaves Darwin-
"Sense of relief" says Nick Dean of IPAN

There is always a slight sense of relief when the main contingent of US marines leaves Darwin. (One thinks "At least they did not get involved in any hostile action this year...") However, a small presence in Darwin is maintained through the Cyclone Season, meaning that the marines are on Australian territory more or less permanently.

Our attempt to give them "The Boot" during IPAN's Darwin conference in August received limited media coverage - and that is not the end of the story! We still have a lot of work to do. We need to help people understand that having US marines in Darwin does not benefit Australia, and that campaigning to have them leave is an excellent route to raising questions about our whole, military relationship with the USA - our 'Dangerous Ally'.

A small number of Sydney-based activists plans to take the next iteration of "The Boot" to Foreign Minister Marise Payne's office early in November, with a request that she give it to the US marines.

Billions to be spent in the Northern Territory supporting US Forces under the Force Posture Agreement

Defence Connect reporting on the recent departure of a US Marine contingent leaving Darwin states:

"To support US Force Posture Initiatives activities (USFPI), Australia and the US will invest around $2 billion on aircraft maintenance, support facilities, fuel storage, accommodation upgrades and upgrades to training areas and ranges.

Minister Reynolds added, "The United States Force Posture Initiatives (USFPI), of which the Marine Rotational Force - Darwin is a key component, demonstrates the strength of the Australia-US alliance and our deep engagement with the Indo-Pacific region."

Senator for Northern Territory, Dr Sam McMahon, said the USFPI continues to provide significant economic benefits for the Top End.

"Around $8 billion will be invested over the next decade in new and upgraded facilities in the Northern Territory," Senator McMahon said."

IPAN Darwin Conference Report

IPAN's 2019 National Conference held in Darwin on 2-4 August was attended by close to 100 representatives and individuals from 50 different affiliated organisations across Australia from every State and Territory. Participants included the local Larrakia First People, peace and anti-war organisations, community, faith and social justice organisations, representatives from several unions (MUA, Retail and Fast Food Workers Union, CEPU, NTEU, CFMEU and Northern Territory Trades and Labour Council). Local Darwin anti-war activists and environmentalists were involved in organising and promoting the Conference.

The successful National Conference is a sign of the growing public sentiment opposed to Australia's involvement in US wars of aggression and interoperability with US military and instead looking towards Australia's independence.

The Conference helped to build support and solidarity amongst local people in an environment generally supportive of US troop placement there, and recognised by those locals attending.

One of the many highlights of the Conference was the participation and strong contributions made by the Larrakia First People, the traditional custodians of the country around Darwin, NT. We learned about the rich culture and history of Larrakia First People's struggles for justice and sovereignty. Neither the Australian governments nor the US ever sought permission from the Larrakia people to base US marines on their country. Many Conference participants were inspired and moved by the wisdom and generosity of the Larrakia people extended to us. READ ON

IPAN CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS – PLENARY SESSION- DARWIN

1. IPAN message of solidarity to workers at DP World containers and their union the Maritime Union of Australia.
This 2019 National Conference of Independent and Peaceful Australia Network (IPAN) held in Darwin 2-4 August extends our solidarity and support to the MUA and its members at DP World containers terminal ports in Brisbane, Sydney, Melbourne and Fremantle.
IPAN stands in solidarity with wharfies and the MUA fighting to protect the hard won wages, working conditions and secure jobs that benefit working people.
Over the years IPAN has been encouraged by the support from maritime workers and the MUA's long history of campaigning for a just and peaceful world for working people.

We wish you all the best in your just struggle.

2. Free Julian Assange

This 2019 National Conference of Independent and Peaceful Australia Network expresses its solidarity with Julian Assange, its resolute objection to his detainment in a high security gaol in UK, and its complete opposition to his extradition to the USA, for exposing the war-crimes of that country and others to the world.

3. No Australian involvement in US war on Iran

This IPAN conference urges the Australian government to reject pressures from the USA to send our ships to the Straits of Hormuz, adding to the pressures by the USA government to isolate IRAN and destroy its economy.

We reject any Australian involvement in USA war on Iran!

Keep our ships and Australian forces home!

Australia must make its own foreign affairs policies!

4. Solidarity with West Papuan people's struggles

This 2019 IPAN Conference supports the struggles of West Papuan people for independence.

IPAN affiliates are encouraged to reach out to West Papuan groups to support and publicise their activities.

5. Export peace not weapons

This 2019 IPAN Conference in Darwin urges Australia to abandon plans to be a major weapons exporter, and instead promote Australia joining with New Zealand in Disarmament and Peace-making together with all geographical regional neighbours.

"Quit Nukes"- ICAN's superannuation divestiture program kicks off in Sydney and Melbourne

With Acknowledgement to Pearls and Irritations- 25th October, 2019
Is your super funding nuclear weapons?
by Margaret Peril & Margaret Beavis

Many people have welcomed the widespread divestment from tobacco by superannuation funds, but would be shocked to know their retirement savings are invested in nuclear weapons companies.

In Sydney and Melbourne this week, the "Quit Nukes" nuclear weapon free finance campaign will kick off. Quit Nukes aims to raise awareness amongst superannuation companies and encourage them to no longer invest in nuclear weapons.

Nuclear weapons are designed to devastate cities and annihilate those who live there, causing massive civilian casualties.

Most people assume nuclear weapons are the responsibility of governments, yet they are privatised to big companies like Lockheed Martin and Thales.

It is likely some superannuation companies themselves are unaware of their nuclear weapons holdings. Even those companies applying filters that exclude “controversial weapons” usually still have holdings, through their passive investments or through exchange traded funds.

In praise of Camp Bindee

by Graeme Dunbstan

Let me sing in praise of the heroes, saints and angels of Camp Bindee, the Frontline Action on Coal camp in Birri country 50 km west of Bowen, Far North Queensland.

The Camp has been established for three years. Last August FLAC announced a national Red Alert call for activists to join the Camp for an extended campaign of actions aimed at disrupting and delaying the start up work on the Adani Carmichael Mine.

United States interference in Australia's domestic politics- 11th November 1975- Lest we forget

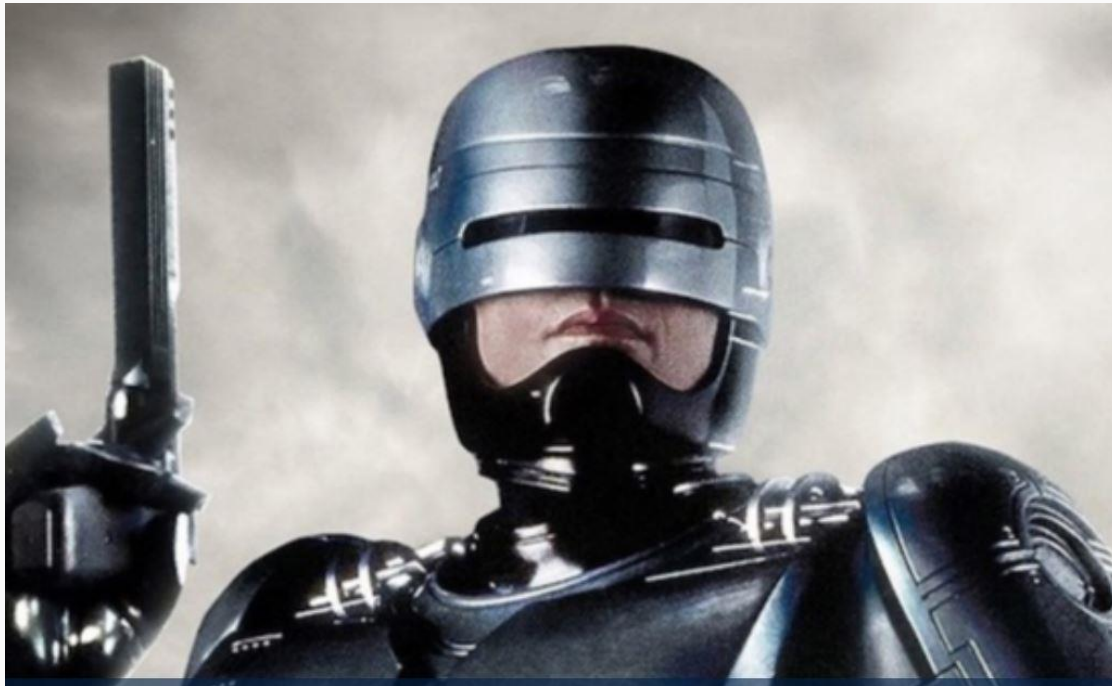

This is not a conspiracy theory. It was confirmed by no other than the President of the United States, Jimmy Carter in an apology to Gough Whitlam conveyed by the President's envoy at a breakfast meeting in the Qantas lounge, Sydney in 1977. Whitlam drew the attention of the House to this and it is recorded in Hansard.

Bevan Ramsden, in the article below, has compiled from a number of sources, details of the U.S. involvement in this coup against the democratically elected Whitlam Government. The article includes Whitlam's statement to Parliament of the US President's admission to U.S. interference in Australia's domestic politics and the apology that was made. And it includes the role of the CIA in the coup and details of their telegram to ASIO several days before the dismissal saying that Whitlam was a threat to the security of his own country.

Why we must ban killer robots

Why we must ban killer robots.

by Matilda Byrne, National Coordinator of Campaign to Stop Killer Robots (Australia) – SafeGround Inc.(IPAN affiliate) (IPAN is a member of the Campaign to Stop Killer Robots)

Just because you can, doesn't mean you should'. New technology has brought great benefits. However, certain applications of science in warfare, such as the atomic bomb and agent orange have had horrific impacts on humanity.

We are at a time where artificial intelligence (AI) is being integrated into defence more and more and 'killer robots' or Lethal Autonomous Weapons Systems are on the horizon. These weapons would have no human control, supervision, verification or oversight over the selection of targets and use of lethal force. Killer robots challenge humanity's morality, ethics, legal principles and global security – but the international community has an opportunity to act and introduce a preemptive ban.

Killer Robots threaten international security. For example, not needing to consider consequences of putting 'boots on the ground' lowers the threshold of war, encouraging otherwise avoided confrontations or imperialistic interventions. Experts have also warned we may see a new-age arms race.

"Nonviolence reveals the true power relationship, which is that all governments rest on the consent of the governed and that consent can always be withdrawn."

This is the essence behind civilian-based defense, a nonviolent alternative to war and military-based defense. Civilian-based defense applies massive and selective noncooperation and defiance to make society unrulable by would-be tyrants and aggressors. Join World BEYOND War on November 7 for a special webinar with guests Rivera Sun and Philippe Duhamel to talk about the principles and efficacy of civilian-based defense as a nonviolent means of conflict resolution.

The Vietnam Moratorium Campaign

A 50 years- on- Celebration is being planned for May next year

Volunteers are needed

To make it national, celebration organising committees need to be set up in all states.

Melbourne has already established a committee and is in the process of organising.

Can you help or contribute in some way or have memorabilia for a display ?

If so please get in touch with:

Bevan Ramsden 0418 697 528 bevanramsden@gmail.com

The aim of the celebration includes learning from the past and applying those lessons to the present.

Not much has changed since May 1970. Australia is still in a close alliance with the United States and has continued to support and follow the U.S. into wars of aggression; in Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria and currently there is danger of being drawn into a war on Iran.

Remember Vietnam and keep Australia out of U.S. uars !
